FOREWORD

We, the staff of the nineteen hundred and fifty-five PERTELOTE, invite you, fellow students, friends, and teachers to share again with us the two wonderful years we have been at Brevard. We hope this television edition of your annual will remain, always, a reminder of the happy days we spent learning to live together, to labor together, and to learn together.

"The meeting please come to order" ... long sessions ... called meetings ... hard work—words synonymous with the Student Government of Brevard College. "Come on everybody, let's support the team! ... Hey, Johnny, have you bought your cow-bell yet? ... I'm sorry, but the handbook states on page fifteen" ... words, that's true—but words symbolic of the spirit of the students of our college as represented by its leader, the Student Council.

Aren't those retreats wonderful! . . . who's for another hike to John's Rock . . . campfire . . . singing . . . crisp, invigorating weather . . . singing some more in barbershop harmony . . .
 friendship circle . . . goodnight, everybody! . . . Blest be the tie that binds!

Put on your heels, girls, it's club night again ... this is a far cry from the outfit I wore on initiation day ... they worked their way to Paris and back again ... was it fun? ... why, I love Paris! ... what are you wearing to the masquerade tonight? ... Well, we thought we'd dress as "L'il Abner" and "Daisy Mae" ... a little bit of gossiping ... a lot of friendship ... a little time here ... a lot of memories ... Shouldn't you get acquainted?

CLIOSOPHIC SOCIETY

If there's an ounce of talent on this campus we'll find it ... an boys! ... and find it they did ... "Swing your partners and circle all—then pramenade around the hall" ... the Clios, working hard + the campus barn + hillbilly music = an old timey square dance ... dim the lights ... change the sets ... we're in Paris, and it's homecoming time ... working, griping, growing together ... it's all in the club!

Pink bannets, teddy bears . . . the Baby Nemas are making their grand debut into society with a charus of "We're the Baby Nemas, we're proud to claim that name" . . . then there was the variety show with overcoats and college songs and a 50-yard line seat for all the Delphian-Nema "charus" . . . and don't forget the Christmas dance . . . remember that tree? It reached all the way to the ceiling . . . and remember that sang . . . that beautiful, dreamy sang especially for you? . . . and the candlelight . . . hazy . . . precious . . . memories.

Now don't you shove until initiation day! . . . but I can't wear Bermudo shorts, I'm bowlegged! . . . gleeful and anguished cries . . . songs . . . Christmas songs . . . the impromptu "clean-up" chorus serenades the compus as they trek dorm-ward at 2 o'clock in the morning . . . do you remember? . . . Remember the working and planning together . . . the laughing and playing when the work was done? . . . the soying good-bye of the end of the year? . . . the knowing that you'd never forget!
